IGP Pays d'Oc

TERROIR

Originating from vineyards in temperate climates, cultivated on limestone terrain, this exquisite grape variety, the Sauvignon Blanc, showcases its utmost splendid outcomes. Our team of vintners has meticulously chosen specific terroirs nestled in the cool expanses of the Pays d'Oc region. These terroirs benefit from gentle breezes that moderate the temperature, ample humidity, and significant day-to-night temperature shifts, all of which collectively facilitate a gradual ripening process.

WINEMAKING

Crafted with precision, this Sauvignon Blanc undergoes meticulous winemaking to uphold the berry's integrity and safeguard its delicate aromas. Initial grape maceration lasts six hours to maximize fruit essence extraction, followed by gentle pressing and thorough cold settling. Cold temperature fermentation precedes a five-month aging period on fine lees, enhancing the wine's texture.

FOOD & WINE PAIRING
