CONTINUOUS DEVELOPMENT

Partnership with suppliers is at the core of our business and suppliers create our company's value.

- We maintain long-term contracts with suppliers. Many of them have been with us from the very beginning of our company's existence.
- Our vegetables come from specially selected varieties, which we determine on the basis of many years of observation and research.
- We pass the seeds to our suppliers, we help them in the development of cultivation and harvesting technology by organizing annual training courses and workshops for them.

PURCHASE OF RAW MATERIALS

Our database includes over 500 suppliers of raw materials, materials and packaging.

- We are able to purchase 250 tons of high-quality raw material per day and store it in cold stores at a controlled temperature
- 100% of all raw material purchases are made at the plant - each delivery is carefully controlled
- In the season, we buy approx. 13 thousand tons of cucumber, plus the right amount of dill and spices
- We sort all raw materials into appropriate sizes for specific products

Control in every step, results analysis and continuous development.

Our suppliers are regularly audited by us – we verify their plantations, as well as harvest process and storage conditions.

Process control – every stage of the production process – from raw material receipt, through verification during production to the finished product, is constantly monitored by a team of qualified lab technicians.

Finished products are additionally inspected and verified by independent certified centres for compliance with the requirements of the International Food Standard System.
