Secco – Bianco IGT Veneto

CIAO®

Dry

10,5% vol

Glera

200 ml

Winemaking

It is a semi-sparkling white wine made from Glera grapes; an Italian white variety cultivated in Veneto region. The grapes are gently pressed and fermented at low temperature. The sparkle is obtained through fermentation at controlled temperature in autoclave by the Charmat-Martinotti method.

È un vino bianco frizzante prodotto da uve Glera, una varietà di vite italiana coltivata in Veneto. Le uve vengono pressate delicatamente e fatte fermentare a bassa temperatura. L'effervescenza è ottenuta mediante fermentazione a temperatura controllata in autoclave con il metodo Charmat-Martinotti.

Colour and Aroma

The colour is pale straw-yellow with a fine and persistent perlage. Scents of flower and fruits, most of unripe apple and lemon zest.

Giallo paglierino tenue con un perlage fine e persistente. Sentori floreali e fruttati, in particolare mela verde e scorza di limone.

Palate and Food pairing

Crispy and pleasantly fruity on the palate a wine with creamy perlage. This wine is perfect to pair with a light meal, fried appetizers or Parmigiano Reggiano cheese. The ideal serving temperature is 6-8°C.

Fresco e piacevolmente fruttato al palato, con un perlage cremoso. Perfetto per accompagnare piatti leggeri, antipasti fritti o un Parmigiano Reggiano. La temperatura di servizio ideale è 6-8°C.
