Product Characteristics	Use Scenes (Usage · Recipes)
A fusion product combining two of Japan's three most renowned specialties has been created: Inaniwa Udon, one of Japan's three great udon made using a traditional method passed down for over 300 years in the Inaniwa region of Akita Prefecture, and matcha made from Uji Tea, one of Japan's three great teas believed to have been produced since the Kamakura period. Enjoy the smooth texture and satisfying bite of Inaniwa Udon, along with the refined aroma of Uji Matcha.	It can be served as a main course on the menu or as the final dish in a course meal. It also lends itself well to Western-style or Chinese-style adaptations.
