THE COMPANY

The company was founded in Italy in 1880 by Bulgari family, whose members still carry on the long tradition in the confectionery sector.

It was originally founded as a handicraft company, over the years it has increased in order to create a flexible system to meet the market needs all over the world.

Bulgari Agostino s.r.l. has achieved a high level of quality after many years of experience in the confectionery sector, without forgetting the care and the handicraft attention in the production.

Today the company can count on an important production capacity and on very modern technologies, in a plant of 14.000 m<sup>2</sup>.

With centuries-old experience handed down from generation to generation and professionalism, Bulgari Agostino s.r.l. creates a rich variety of sweets always appreciated in Italy and worldwide.

AGOSTINO BULGARI

A visionary entrepreneur and the heart behind the Agostino Bulgari brand. Agostino Bulgari was more than just the founder; he is the guiding light of a brand that continually seeks to push the boundaries of what is possible in the realm of sweets.

OUR PRODUCTS

STUNNING PRODUCTS

At AGOSTINO BULGARI,
we're not just making sweets:
we're crafting experiences.

From our inception, our mission has been to revolutionize the confectionery landscape, intertwining tradition with innovation to create something truly extraordinary.

Our founder, Agostino Bulgari, embarked on this journey with a vision to bring joy and wonder through confectionery, a vision that remains at the heart of everything we do.

THE UNIQUENESS OF 3D DEPOSITED MARSHMALLOWS

Edible Art in 3 Dimensions

We are proud to be at the forefront of confectionery innovation with our pioneering 3D deposition process.

This groundbreaking technique allows us to create marshmallows with intricate designs and detailed shapes previously thought impossible.

FILLED MARSHMALLOWS: A surprise in every bite

Filled marshmallows represent a delightful innovation in the world of sweets, offering a surprising and sophisticated twist on the traditional marshmallow experience. The essence of their appeal lies in the contrast between the soft, fluffy exterior and the unexpected burst of flavor from within, creating a multi-sensory experience that is both surprising and satisfying.

THE EXTRUDED MARSHMALLOW

Tradition Meets Innovation

Agostino Bulgari has taken the traditional marshmallow extrusion process to new heights, perfecting a technique that consistently produces marshmallows with an unparalleled texture and flavor profile.

Perfect balance of Softness and Flavor
