Product Characteristics		Use Scenes (Usage ・ Recipes)
During the production of herbal tea, great importance is placed on quality at every stage. Raw materials are carefully selected, with attention paid to their origin, purity, and aromatic characteristics. The production process is designed to preserve the natural properties, flavor, and aroma of the herbs.		This herbal tea is suitable for daily consumption and can be enjoyed at any time of the day. It is prepared by pouring hot water over the herbs and allowing them to steep for several minutes. The tea can be consumed on its own or combined with honey, lemon, or other natural ingredients according to personal preference.
