Production Process

NEW PRODUCT

1 Inquire customer's requirements on preferred flavors or product type?

2 If the customer already has flavor samples, They can inform the company.

*The company will not accept production order for products similar to the products under current production line of the company.

3

During the product flavor improvement phase, the customer has to pay a fee of 6,000 baht, which includes registration fee / product item and product flavor samples (up to 2 times, 5 packs per time).

4

When the customer is satisfied with the flavor and conclusion is made, the company will keep the formula as a secret which is only available for the customer.

5

The quotation proposed by the company includes only prices of raw materials and production, but excludes packaging costs and 7% value added tax.

6 Packages such as film (Sachets), bags, boxes, etc. should be supplied by the customer to the company for packing.

8

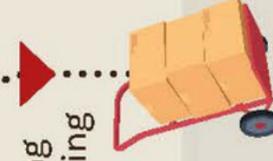

9 The company will begin production planning after receiving a purchase order (PO) and 50% deposit.

For production order, the minimum required quantity is specified by the company is 50,000 packs per order.

10

The production lead time is about 15 working days for an order of 50,000 Sachets (excluding Sundays and Public Holidays) before the products can be delivered to customers. The customer will receive products packed in cartons.

11

The customer shall make payment of the remaining 50% on the product delivery date.
