It was named as Sayan, symbolizing Soyon mountains. As for the branding design, it's special that having the picture of Soyon mounts in the glass, together with a snow leopard, which is extinct in the world. Snow leopard is the symbol of Central Asian mountains and the number of snow leopards have been decreased 20% within the last 20 years. Only 4000 left in the nature are close to be endangered. The products is spreading message to the people to protect and contribute to the protection of the snow leopards.
