

How Honey Should Be

At Hampson Honey, we're proud to be one of Australia's most trusted bulk honeycomb suppliers for the hospitality sectors since 2012. We understand the specific requirements of our customers and strive to provide top-quality products at a competitive price. If you're looking for a honeycomb supplier that offers fast, reliable, and friendly service, look no further than Hampson Honey.

Hampson Honey produces and packs all of our own honeycomb so you can enjoy fresh honeycomb straight from the beekeeper.

100% Australian

When we say 100% Australian, we mean it! Our range only consist of 100% Australian honeycomb and all our honeycomb is proudly packed right here in Queensland at our HACCP certified facility.

Hampson Honey

A Happy Hive Delivers the Best Honey

Our motto at Hampson Honey is to keep the bees healthy and happy so that they produce the best quality honeycomb for us. Our beekeepers select only the best national parks to keep our beehives so we can ensure we eliminate exposure to pesticides and herbicides. We treat our bees with the love and respect they deserve; and by looking after our bees, they look after us in return. The result: the most delicious, pure, raw 100% Australian honeycomb you will ever taste.

Honeycomb - The Pinnacle of Luxury

It doesn't get much fresher than this! At Hampson Honey, we supply 100% fresh Australian honeycomb straight from our beehives. Gorgeous honeycomb, the pinnacle of luxury, makes a beautiful addition to any breakfast buffet.

100% AUSTRALIAN

Who we are

Hampson Honey is a family owned and operated honey producer and packer which has delivered premium, pure, Australian honey and honeycomb since 2012. What makes us unique is that we produce and pack so we can ensure a high quality product from start to finish.

We also have a network of Australian beekeepers who supply us so we can ensure a consistent supply of 100% Australian honey and honeycomb.

Restaurant Frames

Hampson Honey is Queensland's largest producers of honeycomb. If you've seen beautiful white Australian honeycomb in restaurants or hotels, there's a good chance you've sampled our product.

Since we pride ourselves on the quality we produce, we only use brand-new honeycomb frames to ensure that our products look as amazing as they taste.

So, if you're in search of premium-quality, full-depth and ideal honeycomb frames straight from the beehive, you've come to the right place.

Bulk Australian Honeycomb Range

Hampson Honey supplies full-depth and ideal honeycomb frames in bulk to various distributors, cafes, and restaurants. If you are looking for honeycomb, here is what we can offer:

Ideal Honeycomb Frames

These frames are smaller and wire free, making it an easy option for chef's who like to cut into the comb to decorate various dishes like cheeseboards or dessert platters.

Full Depth Honeycomb Frames

These frames are our most popular choice for boutique restaurants that like to have a full frame on display as part of their breakfast buffet. It's quite the conversation starter and no breakfast bar is complete without one.

Hampson Honey also offers a range of retail ready options such as 170g and 350g cut honeycomb should this suit your needs.

If you're looking for honeycomb, get in touch with us to discuss your requirements.
